Property Description

Rumor has it :foreigners' rent is different from Chinese price ?!Kaka says :“Why?!No!”

Last time ,when I meet a British client ,he told me that “I have lived in China for 5 years, speak fluent Chinese and have a Chinese wife so please give me □□□□□(Chinese price)and not □□□□□(Foreigners' price :)” I was shocked for a while ,because, to me ,there is no difference between Chinese price and foreigners' price ,maybe sometimes foreigners' price is lower than Chinese price , I don't know how other agents do their business ,but I always think being honest and efficient is very important for my business , and if I cheat on my clients , sooner or later , my clients will find what I did to them ,and do you think they will recommend me to other foreigners ? first ,with my many years' agent background , find a good apartment for my clients .second ,help my clients try to negotiate with the landlord to bring the price down .third, offer you a wonderful after-renting service . that's how I do my business . So I told that British client “ No matter whether you can speak good Chinese , I won't cheat on you . and to me , there is no difference between □□□□□and □□□□□I have many foreign clients that can tell you what kind of agent Kaka is . Because being honest and efficient makes my clients recommend me to every one . and cheating on foreigners will ruin my business sooner or later , I am not a greedy and sordid business man , I am smart enough to know how to maintain my business .do you think so ?.

My English sucks , but at least I am the best and most honest agent in Qingdao . I will find some apartments and talk to you later . ”
