Property Description

Flatshare is a good way to save money , learn Chinese and make Chinese friends in Qingdao .

In fact , many Chinese wanna share their apartments with foreigners , so do foreigners , the precondition is that the sharing apartment is very clean and tidy , and all the tenants should have the habit of keeping the apartment neat and tidy , the reason I mention it is that most of the sharing apartments suck in Qingdao , for example , a two bedroom will be devided into three or four rooms , no living room , sometimes no kitchen , many tenants share the bathroom , it is cheap (600-800 rmb per month) , but no foreigners like this type ----we are not rich , but at least not that poor . In this case , you should rent a good sharing apartment , at least the apartment should keep the original structure , no unreal bedroom , only the real bedrooms , sharing the living room , kitchen . that means , sharing a two bedroom apartment with only one person(or a couple) , or sharing a three bedroom apartment with two people(or two couples) , then if the roommates are very clean and tidy , this sharing apartment is perfect , even a little more expensive (1200-1600 rmb per month) , but it is worth .

In this kind of apartments , you can enjoy your life , make friends with your Chinese roommates , learn Chinese with their help , sometimes do some cooking together .

I can find some good young Chinese who wanna share their apartments for you , if you like this way of living in Qingdao , call me ,you will find what you want .
