Property Description

In additional to rent ,what's the average cost of living in Qingdao ?Take Hong Kong Garden for example .

In China , when you rent an apartment , you have to pay several main fees in your everyday life : property management fee(diferent neighborhood has different property management fee , for example , it is about 1.4 rmb per sqm in Hong Kong Garden , that means , if the apartment is 70 sqm , you should pay 98 rmb property management fee per month) , electricity bill(unit price is all the same , just depends on how much you use , for one person , generally 100 rmb per month is enough , but maybe a little higher in summer because of the air-conditioning) , water and gas fee (20 rmb per month should be enough) , heating fee (only in winter from Nov 15th to April 5th , the unit price is about 20 rmb per sqm , for example , if the apartment is 70 sqm , the heating fee for the whole winter is 1400 rmb) , internet fee (about 90 rmb per month) . Any other problems , feel free to ask me .

This is Kaka - always at your service! I've helped out innumerable foreigners in Qingdao, so I know exactly what you need from a real estate agent – not only a good apartment, but also a wonderful post-rental service.

Moving to China can be a stressful experience- you need to sort out your visa, accommodation, cleaning, maybe getting a car, where to do the shopping etc... However, I assure you that you can call me any time and I'll always be more than willing to take care of these issues for you.
